Graduate Certificate in Catchment and Waterway Management

Scholarships from the Victorian Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning

Enrolments are now open for the 2017/18 Graduate Certificate in Catchment and Waterway Management. Please see www.commercial.unimelb.edu.au/catchment/ for a description of the course.

Scholarships

The Victorian Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning is offering half scholarships for students to undertake this course commencing in July 2017. Some full scholarships may also be available in special circumstances. Two full scholarships are available for Traditional Owners or Aboriginal Victorians.

Scholarship Eligibility

Staff and contractors employed or engaged by Victorian Government Agencies on 31 January 2017 are eligible to apply. Victorian Government Agencies include Government Departments, State Owned Enterprises and Statutory Authorities. This includes Catchment Management Authorities, Urban and Rural Water Corporations, Melbourne Water, EPA and Parks Victoria.

Scholarship Criteria

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of:

- employer recommendation
- potential to influence the future of catchment and waterway management in the State
- academic and practical experience and ability.

Selection Process

Awardees will be selected on the basis of an application. Interviews may be held in some circumstances. Awardees will be selected by a panel comprised of representatives from the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning and the University of Melbourne.

Scholarship Value

Half scholarships are valued at $7,050. Applicants are encouraged to seek further financial assistance from their employer. Alternatively, the Australian Government FEE-HELP program may be available to assist awardees of half scholarships with the balance of the course fee. (Note: costs associated with the four by four-day intensive teaching periods are not covered by the Scholarship or FEE-HELP. This must be funded by your employer or self-funded).

Scholarship Applications

The Scholarship Application Form must be uploaded with the online registration along with all of your supporting documentation to be considered for a place.
